

CONTENTS

Preface . . . . .	1
List of Abbreviations . . . . .	3
I Questions of Poetics
1 Medieval Rhetoric . . . . .	7
2 Theologia veluti quaedam poëtria : Quelques observations sur la fonction des images poëtiques chez Jean Scot . . . . .	39
3 Tradition and Innovation in Medieval Western Colour- Imagery . . . . .	55
4 Functions of Classical Borrowing in Medieval Latin Verse	105
II Genres, Authors, Texts
5 The Beginnings of the Sequence . . . . .	115
6 The Rise of the Medieval Fabliau: Latin and Vernacular Evidence . . . . .	145
7 Learned Lyric and Popular Ballad in the Early Middle Ages . . . . .	167
8 The Song of Songs and Medieval Love-Lyric . . . . .	209
9 Guillaume IX and courtoisie . . . . .	237
10 Poetic Meaning in the Carmina Burana . . . . .	249

11	Peter of Blois and Poetry at the Court of Henry II . . . . .	281
12	Two Thirteenth-Century Religious Lyrics . . . . .	341

III Dante and the Latin Middle Ages

13	Francesca and Héloïse . . . . .	359
14	Dante's Earthly Paradise: Towards an Interpretation of Purgatorio XXVIII . . . . .	387
15	Orizzonte che rischiari : Notes towards the Interpretation of Paradiso XIV . . . . .	407
16	Boethius, Alanus and Dante . . . . .	431
17	L'amor che move il sole e l'altre stelle . . . . .	439

Indices

(i)	Manuscripts . . . . .	477
(ii)	Themes and Images . . . . .	479
(iii)	General Index . . . . .	483